

Earn your NAAEI Supplier Designation Today!

By becoming a Certified Apartment Supplier (CAS), you can take your career in the apartment industry to the next level! CAS training helps you better meet the needs of the apartment communities you serve.

The National Apartment Association Education Institute (NAAEI) offers this nationally recognized designation to apartment industry suppliers.

CAS Training Covers:

- Management of Residential Issues
- Risk Management
- Financial Management
- Fair Housing

“Vendor credentials do matter to those of us who support the NAA and our local apartment association affiliates. The whole point of being part of a trade association is to support our members and do business with those who understand our industry. I would certainly pay attention to the CAS designation if a vendor was bidding for work with our company and was competing against someone who did not have that designation. It would underscore for me that the vendor took the time to learn.”
